

The map displays the Kingdom of Castile and León, a large region in northwestern Spain. It is bordered by Baskenland to the north, Navarra to the northeast, Kastilien und León to the south, and Aragonien to the southwest. The map is divided into numerous municipalities, each labeled with its name. The municipalities are color-coded: pink for the northern and eastern parts, yellow for the central and southern parts, and green for the western and northwestern parts. Major cities like Logroño, Vitoria, and Burgos are marked with red stars. The map also shows the location of the capital, Vitoria, and the location of the kingdom's seat, Burgos. The map is oriented with North at the top.