

The map displays the 77 municipalities of Mato Grosso do Sul, organized into four main regions. The northern region (pink) includes municipalities like Apiacás, Nova Monte Verde, and Nova Bandeirantes. The western region (light blue) features Juína, Juara, and Novo Horizonte do Norte. The southern region (light green) includes Comodoro, Campos de Júlio, and São José do Rio Claro. The eastern region (light orange) includes Santa Cruz do Xingu, Vila Rica, and Santa Terezinha. The map also shows neighboring states: Amazonas to the north, Pará to the northeast, Rondônia to the west, Bolívia to the southwest, and Goiás to the southeast. Major cities like Campo Grande, Dourados, and Ponta Porã are marked with red stars. The state capital, Campo Grande, is located in the central-western part of the state.