

The map illustrates the state of Pernambuco, Brazil, and its geographical context. It is bordered by Ceará to the north, Rio Grande do Norte to the northeast, Paraíba to the east, Piauí to the west, and Bahia to the south. The state's capital, Recife, is highlighted with a red star. Other significant cities and towns are marked with black dots, including Olinda, Paulista, Igarassu, Camaragibe, São Lourenço da Mata, Jaboatão dos Guararapes, and many others. The map also shows the state's coastline and major rivers. A network of roads is depicted, with some roads labeled with their respective numbers (e.g., BR-116, BR-226, BR-404, BR-403, BR-222, BR-304, BR-405, BR-226, BR-101, BR-104, BR-230, BR-427, BR-110, BR-361, BR-412, BR-122, BR-407, BR-116, BR-423). The map also shows the state's coastline and major rivers.