

A detailed map of Mexico showing its 32 states and Federal District. The states are color-coded and labeled in Spanish. Major cities are indicated by black dots. The map includes geographical features like rivers and lakes. Neighboring countries are also shown: Guatemala to the south, El Salvador to the southeast, and the United States to the north. The Gulf of Mexico is visible along the eastern coast.