

This is a detailed map of Ireland, showing its geographical features, major cities, towns, and roads. The map is color-coded by region: Ulster (light blue), Leinster (light green), Munster (light orange), and Connaught (light purple). Major cities like Dublin, Cork, Galway, and Limerick are marked with red stars. Numerous towns and villages are labeled with black dots. The map also shows the surrounding waters, including the Atlantic Ocean and the Irish Sea, and the neighboring island of Great Britain to the west.
