

This map illustrates the 100 counties of North Carolina, each labeled with its name. Major cities are marked with black dots, and the state capital, Raleigh, is highlighted with a red star. The map shows the state's location relative to its neighbors: Tennessee to the west, Virginia to the north, and South Carolina to the south. The Atlantic Ocean is to the east. The map also depicts the Pamlico River system in the southeastern part of the state, including the Pamlico River, Neuse River, and Tar River. The map is color-coded by county, with various shades of green, yellow, orange, and pink used to distinguish between different regions.
