

This map illustrates the state of Pernambuco, Brazil, and its surrounding regions. The state is bordered by Ceará to the north, Rio Grande do Norte to the northeast, Paraíba to the east, Alagoas to the southeast, and Bahia to the south. To the west, it borders Piauí and Ceará. The map highlights the state's coastline along the Atlantic Ocean and its extensive network of rivers and waterways. Major cities and urban centers are marked with black dots, including Recife, the capital, and other significant locations like Olinda, Paulista, and Jaboatão dos Guararapes. The map also shows the state's major transportation infrastructure, including federal highways (BR-116, BR-226, BR-101, BR-104, BR-230, BR-427, BR-361, BR-110, BR-412, BR-423, BR-122, BR-404, BR-020, BR-407) and the state's railway system. The map is color-coded to distinguish between different administrative regions and the state's coastline.
