

This map of Romania displays its administrative divisions and major urban centers. The capital, Bucharest, is highlighted with a red star. The map includes labels for neighboring countries (Hungary, Ukraine, Moldova, Bulgaria, Serbia) and the Danube River. Major cities are marked with black dots, and smaller towns are marked with open circles. The map also shows the network of roads, including national roads (DN) and highways (A, E).