

A detailed map of South Carolina showing its 46 counties. Each county is labeled with its name in all caps. Major cities are marked with black dots and labeled. Columbia is marked with a red star, indicating it is the state capital. The map also shows the state's borders with Georgia to the west, North Carolina to the north, and the Atlantic Ocean to the east. Water bodies like Lake Marion and Lake Moultrie are also depicted.