

The map displays the Innsbruck region in Austria, centered on the city of Innsbruck, marked with a red star. The region is divided into several administrative districts, each color-coded: orange for the northern districts (Kufstein, Wörgl, Kramsach), green for the southern districts (Kitzbühel, St. Johann in Tirol), and blue for the western districts (Landeck, Imst). Major roads are highlighted in red and orange, while rivers are shown in blue. The map also shows neighboring regions: ALEMANIA to the north, SALZBURGO to the east, CARINTIA to the southeast, and SUIZA to the southwest. Numerous towns and villages are labeled, including Vils, Reutte, Imst, Landeck, Telfs, Zirl, Völs, Axams, Innsbruck, Wattens, Schwaz, Kufstein, Wörgl, Kramsach, Jenbach, Kitzbühel, and St. Johann in Tirol.
