

This map illustrates the Basque Country, a region in northern Spain. The central focus is Vitoria-Gasteiz, the capital, marked with a red star. The map shows the provinces of Vizcaya, Biscaya, and Guipúzcoa, each with its own color-coded areas. Major cities and towns are labeled, including Bilbao, San Sebastián, Durango, and Eibar. A network of roads is depicted, with the AP-1, AP-68, and N-232 being prominent. The map also shows the surrounding regions of Cantabria, Castile-et-León, La Rioja, and Navarre.