

This map of Spain displays its administrative regions and major cities. The regions are color-coded: Galicia (light blue), Asturias (light green), Cantabria (light orange), Basque Country (light yellow), Navarre (light pink), Aragon (light green), Catalonia (light orange), Valencia (light pink), Balearic Islands (light blue), Castile and León (light yellow), Castile-La Mancha (light pink), Castile and the Mancha (light yellow), Extremadura (light green), Andalusia (light orange), Murcia (light pink), and the Canary Islands (light blue). Major cities are marked with black dots, and the capital, Madrid, is marked with a red star. The map also shows the surrounding countries: France to the north, Portugal to the west, Morocco to the south, and Algeria to the southeast. The Balearic Islands and Canary Islands are also shown.