

This map illustrates the Linz region in Austria, centered around the Danube river. The city of Linz is marked with a red star. The map shows the following details:

- Geography: The Danube river flows through the region, with several lakes and reservoirs, including the Attersee and Traunsee.
- Administrative Regions: The map is divided into several administrative districts, each color-coded:
 - Upper Austria (Oberösterreich): Light green, covering the central and eastern parts of the region.
 - Lower Austria (Niederösterreich): Light orange, covering the southern and western parts of the region.
 - Salzburg: Light blue, located to the southwest.
 - Styria (Styrie): Light green, located to the southeast.
 - Carinthia (Kärnten): Light blue, located to the south.
- Neighboring Countries:
 - Germany (ALLEMAGNE): To the west.
 - Czech Republic (TCHÉQUIE): To the north.
 - Slovakia (SLOVAQUIE): To the northeast.
- Major Roads:
 - A1: The main road running east-west through the region.
 - A10: A road running north-south through the western part of the region.
 - A9: A road running north-south through the southern part of the region.
- Key Locations and Landmarks:
 - Linz: The capital of Upper Austria, marked with a red star.
 - Other Towns: Wels, Traun, Kremsmünster, Vöcklabruck, and many smaller villages.
 - Landmarks: The Danube river, several lakes, and various historical sites.