

This map of Virginia displays its 95 counties and major cities. The state is bordered by Kentucky to the west, West Virginia to the northwest, Maryland to the north, and Delaware to the northeast. The Chesapeake Bay is located to the east. Major cities are marked with red stars, including Richmond (the state capital), Alexandria, and Norfolk. The map also shows the locations of the state's largest cities, such as Fairfax, Arlington, and Falls Church. The map is color-coded by county, and major roads are shown as red lines. The map includes labels for neighboring states and the Chesapeake Bay.