

The map displays the 43 municipalities of the Basque Country, each labeled with its name in Spanish. The municipalities are color-coded by region: green for the western part, yellow for the central part, and pink for the eastern part. Major cities like Pamplona (Iruña) and Leizor are marked with red stars. The map is surrounded by France to the north, Aragon to the east, Castile and León to the south, and La Rioja to the southwest. The Basque Country is labeled in the top left corner.
