

The map displays the 167 municipalities of Rio Grande do Norte, organized into four main regions. The Northeast region (yellow) includes municipalities like Natal, Mossoró, and São José do Rio Grande. The West region (green) includes Caçazeiras, São José do Bonfim, and São José do Seridó. The South region (blue) includes São José do Camarão, São José do Bonfim, and São José do Seridó. The East region (orange) includes João Pessoa, Recife, and São José do Bonfim. The map also shows the state's borders with Ceará, Pernambuco, and Paraíba.