

This map illustrates the state of Pernambuco, Brazil, and its surrounding regions. The state is bordered by Ceará to the north, Rio Grande do Norte to the northeast, Paraíba to the east, and Bahia to the south. To the west, it borders Piauí. The map highlights the state's extensive coastline along the Atlantic Ocean and its internal network of rivers and water bodies. Major cities and urban centers are marked with black dots, including Recife (the capital), Olinda, Paulista, Jaboatão dos Guararapes, and others. The map also shows the state's transportation infrastructure, with orange lines representing federal highways (BR) and blue lines representing state roads. The state is divided into several municipalities, each labeled with its name. The map is a detailed representation of Pernambuco's geography and administrative divisions.
