

A detailed map of Maryland, showing its major cities, towns, and geographical features. The map is color-coded by county: Baltimore (pink), Annapolis (orange), and surrounding areas (green and yellow). Major cities like Baltimore, Annapolis, and Frederick are highlighted with black dots. The Chesapeake Bay is prominent on the eastern side, with numerous smaller towns and islands labeled. The map also shows the state's borders with Virginia to the west, Delaware to the east, and Pennsylvania to the north. The Potomac River is visible on the western border. The map includes a scale bar and a north arrow.