

The map displays the state of Tocantins, Brazil, with its 177 municipalities. The state capital, Palmas, is marked with a red star. The map is color-coded by region: North (light green), Central (light orange), South (light blue), and West (light pink). Major cities are marked with black dots, and the state capital, Palmas, is marked with a red star. The map includes major highways (BR-155, BR-222, BR-226, BR-230, BR-330, BR-158, BR-010, BR-242) and neighboring states: Pará to the west, Maranhão to the east, and Goiás to the south. The map also shows the Tocantins River and its tributaries.