

This map illustrates the city of Washington, D.C., and its surrounding regions. The city is divided into several colored zones: orange for the northern and eastern parts, green for the central and southern parts, and blue for the water bodies. The map shows numerous neighborhoods, including North Portal Estates, Colonial Village, Shepherd Park, Takoma, Barnaby Woods, Hawthorne, Chevy Chase, Friendship Heights, American University Park, Forest Hills, Van Ness, Spring Valley, Palisades, Foxhall Crescents, Georgetown Reservoir, Georgetown, Foggy Bottom, Penn Quarter, Downtown, Chinatown, Downtown East, Stanton Park, Kingman Park, Hill East, Greenway, River Terrace, Benning, Central NE, Grant Park, Capitol View, Benning Ridge, Benning, Dupont Park, Fort Davis Park, Naylor Gardens, Douglass, Congress Heights, Washington Highlands, Bellevue, Buzzard Point, Fort McNair, Southwest/Waterfront, Monumental Core, Capitol Hill, Near Southeast, Navy Yard, Fairlawn, Skyland, Barry Farm, Historic Anacostia, Fort Stanton, Garfield Heights, and Fort Totten. The map also shows major roads, including the 29, 1, 395, 695, and 295. The surrounding areas are labeled: CONDADO DE MONTGOMERY to the north, CONDADO DE ARLINGTON to the west, CIDADE INDEPENDENTE DE ALEXANDRIA to the south, and CONDADO DE PRINCE GEORGE'S to the east. The map is titled "Washington" in the center, with a red star marking the city center.