

This map illustrates the administrative divisions of Jalisco, Mexico. The state is divided into 113 municipalities, each labeled with its name. The map uses a color-coded system to distinguish different geographical regions: yellow for the central plateau, blue for the coastal areas, green for the mountainous regions, and orange for the desert areas. Major cities and towns are marked with dots and labeled. The map also shows the state's borders with neighboring states: Sinaloa to the northwest, Durango to the north, Zacatecas to the northeast, Aguascalientes to the east, Guanajuato to the southeast, Michoacán to the south, Colima to the southwest, Nayarit to the west, and San Luis Potosí to the northwest. The Gulf of California is visible to the west, and the Pacific Ocean is to the south.