

This map of Minas Gerais, Brazil, illustrates the state's diverse geography and urban landscape. The state is bordered by Bahia to the northeast, São Paulo to the south, and Goiás to the west. The Federal District (Distrito Federal) is located to the north. The map is divided into several regions, each with a distinct color: North (yellow), Central (green), South (blue), and East (pink). Major cities are highlighted with red stars, including Belo Horizonte (the capital), Uberlândia, Juiz de Fora, and Montes Claros. The map also shows the state's extensive network of roads, including major highways like BR-040, BR-050, and BR-116. The state's coastline is visible on the eastern side, with numerous small towns and cities along the coast. The map provides a comprehensive overview of Minas Gerais' administrative and geographical structure.