

Map of the state of Rio Grande do Norte, Brazil, showing its 167 municipalities. The map is color-coded by region: North (light blue), Northeast (light orange), East (light green), South (light purple), and West (light pink). The state capital, Natal, is marked with a red star. The map also shows the state's borders with Ceará to the west, Paraíba to the south, and Pernambuco to the east. The name 'Acude Castanhão' is written in the top left corner.