

A detailed map of South Carolina, showing its 46 counties. Each county is labeled with its name and color-coded. Major cities are marked with dots and labeled. The state's capital, Columbia, is marked with a red star. Surrounding states, North Carolina to the north and Georgia to the south, are also labeled. The map includes the state's coastline and major water bodies like Lake Marion and Lake Moultrie.