

This map of Texas displays a comprehensive network of cities and transportation routes. Major metropolitan areas like Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, and Austin are highlighted with larger text and red stars indicating their status as state capitals. The map uses a color-coded system to distinguish between different regions: green for the western and northwestern parts, blue for the central and southern parts, and orange for the eastern part. Key highways are shown as red lines, with major routes like I-10, I-35, and I-45 clearly marked. The map also includes geographical features such as the Gulf of Mexico, the Rio Grande, and various rivers. Neighboring states and countries are labeled in a lighter font, providing a broader context for the state's location. The overall layout is clear and detailed, making it a useful reference for understanding the geography and infrastructure of Texas.
