

This map of Washington state displays its 39 counties, each color-coded for identification. The counties are arranged as follows:

- Coastal and Western Counties (Blue/Green): Clallam, Jefferson, Grays Harbor, Mason, Thurston, Pacific, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark, Lewis, Pierce, King, Kitsap, Snohomish, Island, San Juan, Whatcom, Skagit, and Stevens.
- Central and Eastern Counties (Green/Orange): Chelan, Douglas, Lincoln, Grant, Kittitas, Adams, Whitman, Garfield, Asotin, and Shoshone.
- Southern and Southeastern Counties (Orange/Pink): Okanogan, Ferry, Pend Oreille, Newport, Spokane, Lincoln, Adams, Whitman, Garfield, Asotin, and Shoshone.

Major cities and towns are marked with black dots, including Bellingham, Friday Harbor, Port Angeles, Port Townsend, Coupeville, Everett, Seattle, Port Orchard, Tacoma, Olympia (marked with a red star), Montesano, South Bend, Chehalis, Cathlamet, Kelso, Vancouver, Stevenson, Goldendale, Yakima, Ellensburg, Wenatchee, Waterville, Ephrata, Prosser, Pasco, Walla Walla, Dayton, Pomeroy, Asotin, Colville, Republic, and Newport. The map also shows the state's borders with Oregon to the south and Idaho to the east, and the Pacific Ocean to the west.