

This map of Washington state provides a comprehensive overview of its geography and urban landscape. Key features include:

- Major Cities and Towns: Labeled with black dots, including Seattle (marked with a red star), Tacoma, Olympia, Everett, Spokane, and Vancouver. Other notable locations include Bellingham, Everett, Bothell, Shoreline, Kirkland, Bellevue, Renton, Kent, Federal Way, Auburn, Puyallup, Spanaway, Parkland, Lakewood, Shelton, University Place, Bremerton, Burien, Port Orchard, SeaTac, and many more.
- Counties: The state is divided into counties, each represented by a different color (e.g., King, Snohomish, Pierce, Kitsap, Jefferson, Clark, Cowlitz, Wahkiakum, Grays Harbor, Franklin, Chelan, Okanogan, Inland Empire, Benton, Franklin, Lincoln, Grant, Adams, Douglas, Walla Walla, Benton, Franklin, Lincoln, Grant, Adams, Douglas, Walla Walla).
- Highways: Major roads are shown as red lines, including I-5, I-90, I-520, and various state routes like SR 101, SR 2, SR 12, SR 395, and SR 82.
- Geographical Features: The map shows the Pacific Northwest coastline, including Puget Sound, the Strait of Juan de Fuca, and the Columbia River. It also depicts major mountain ranges like the Cascade Range and the Olympic Mountains.
- Neighboring States: Oregon is to the south, and Idaho is to the east.